

MANAGEMENT ANALYST I/II – DCE/I-REN - Interested in clean energy, improving energy efficiency, and having a tangible impact on the environment? Looking for a role with a broad range of responsibilities? The Coachella Valley Association of Governments (CVAG) is seeking a management analyst to join the Energy & Sustainability team!

(Position grade: $79,003 - $125,207 annually depending on qualifications, plus a generous paid benefits package including PPO/HMO). Full-time. Under general supervision or direction, performs analysis and coordinates implementation of climate action and sustainability programs such as, but not limited to, energy efficiency, energy procurement, and renewable/carbon free energy planning; researches, identifies, and applies for funding opportunities; establishes and maintains collaborative relationships with member agencies, the community, industry partners, and regulatory agencies; and performs related duties as assigned. REQUIREMENTS: Equivalent to a bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university with major coursework in environmental studies, planning, or a closely related field. APPLY BY: Open until filled with first review on March 21, 2025. CVAG application, resume, supplemental questions and cover letter required. Application and full job description may be obtained at: <https://www.cvag.org/employment.htm> or by calling (760) 346-1127.